The Romano-Germanic Commission of the German Archaeological Institute conducts research on the pre- and protohistory of Europe.

Freunde der Archäologie in Europa e.V. supports the RGK in projects that otherwise could not be realised due to insufficient funding.

Freunde der Archäologie in Europa e.V. provides financial support for

- archaeological field work
- international conferences
- publications and
- study visits by international scholars.

As a member, or with your donation, you support research on the pre- and protohistory of Europe and contribute to the preservation of Europe's cultural heritage.

Freunde der Archäologie in Europa e.V. (Friends of Archaeology in Europe) has been a registered society since 2004. With more than one hundred members it supports the work of the Romano-Germanic Commission (RGK).

Freunde der Archäologie in Europa e.V. stages interesting events organised by renowned scholars on aspects of Europe's past.

- In specialist lectures you learn more about current research on the pre- and protohistory of Europe.
- Trips with expert guides take you to important museums, current temporary exhibitions and archaeological sites in Germany and abroad.
- The annual summer party and evening lecture is a popular meeting place for both scholars and friends of archaeology.

Freunde der Archäologie in Europa e.V. is open to everyone who has an interest in pre- and protohistory and research carried out by the Romano-Germanic Commission.

Your support is urgently needed!
